Decision made

Cabinet Members making the decision	Councillor John Riley - Cabinet Member for Public Safety and Transport Councillor Martin Goddard - Cabinet Member for Finance
DECISION	APPROVED That the Cabinet Member for Public Safety & Transport and Cabinet Member for Finance agreed to extend the current contract with RMT Tyres Ltd, for the provision of a tyre replacement service for London of Borough of Hillingdon fleet for a two-year period from 6 March 2021 until 5 July 2023 at cost of £310,560.
Reason for decision	RMT Tyres Ltd provides an on-site tyre repair service delivering a 24-hour call-out attendance service. The 24-hour service ensures that the Council has continuous tyre management coverage. RMT Tyres Ltd has delivered a cost effective and reliable service to the Council for thirteen years and recently introduced additional benefits to deliver a more cost-effective service.

Alternative options considered and rejected	An “in house” service option: Equipment would need to be purchased and a skilled tyre fitter would need to be employed. To consolidate tyre management into the main vehicle maintenance contract: The present maintenance provider is not equipped to carry out this function.
