Decision made

Cabinet Members making the decision	Councillor Jonathan Bianco, Cabinet Member for Corporate Services & Property Councillor Martin Goddard, Cabinet Member for Finance & Transformation
Decision	Approved That the Cabinet Member for Finance & Transformation and the Cabinet Member for Corporate Services and Property agree to the following capital release requests of £250k from the form Civic Centre Transformation Capital Programme budget 2024/25 budget from the funding of the (Appendix A).
Reason for decision	The Civic Centre Members Car Park and escape staircase currently has a lighting system that has been identified as having a significant energy demand and high carbon footprint. In line with the goals set forth in the Council's Strategic Climate Action Plan, there is potential for making operational improvements to the Members Car Park and Registrars access road to reduce energy demands.
Alternative options considered and rejected	Wiring circuits for the Members Car Park and escape staircase from the Car Park have failed electrical tests. Delaying works carries risk as it could result in total failure of the car park lighting potential fire risk.
