Decision made

Cabinet Members making the decision	Councillor Jonathon Bianco – Cabinet Member for Corporate Services and Property Councillor Martin Goddard - Cabinet Member for Finance and Transformation
Decision	Approved That the Cabinet Member for Finance & Transformation and the Cabinet Member for Corporate Services & Property have agreed to the following capital release requests of £165k from the 2024/25 School Conditions Building Programme budget for the consultation works and associated costs relating to replacement of asbestos cavity decks and roof coverings at Colham Manor Primary School as set out in the report.
Reason for decision	Following the initial building condition review by external consultants the recommendations are that most roof areas are deteriorated and will need to be replaced at Colham Manor Primary School. The Asbestos materials cannot be addressed without removal. The works are to ensure that the school is fully functional for its users the cabinet members therefore agreed to the necessary works to rectify the issue.
