OFFICIAL EXECUTIVE DECISION NOTICE PUBLISHED BY DEMOCRATIC SERVICES

Notice is hereby given that the following decision(s) have been made today by Cabinet Members at the London Borough of Hillingdon:

Title of decision	COMMERCIAL PROPERTY RENT REVIEW – 14 NEW POND PARADE, RUISLIP
Reference No.	1369
Date of decision	Thursday 27 March 2025
Call-in expiry date	Thursday 3 April 2025
Relevant Select Committee	Corporate Resources and Infrastructure Select Committee
Relevant Wards	Ruislip Manor

Decision made

Cabinet Members making the decision	Councillor Jonathan Bianco, Cabinet Member for Corporate Services & Property
Decision	Approved That the Cabinet Member for Corporate Services & Property agreed with the rent negotiated by officers as detailed in the confidential report and instructed Property and Services to complete the appropriate rent review memorandum.
Reason for decision	Lengthy negotiations have taken place with the tenant and a rental increase has been agreed in principle, resulting in an income increase for the General Fund. Officers are confident that this is the maximum achievable rental increase for this rent review.
Alternative options considered and rejected	The alternative was not to approve the agreed-in-principle rental increase for this rent review. This would have been likely to lead to the rent review being referred for third party determination by arbitration. This action would involve a degree of risk as third-party determination may result in a rental figure being determined above or below the rent negotiated between parties and result in substantial arbitration fees on both sides.
Classification	Part II
