| Reason for decision                         | The Cabinet Members agreed that Access Adam Housing was the only solution capable of meeting the Council's full requirements. The proposed three-year contract will provide the system and implementation resources required to support successful delivery and adoption.                                                                                                                                                |
| Alternative options considered and rejected | The do-nothing option was discounted because it would create unacceptable operational, financial and compliance risks. Other options considered were also deemed to be inadequate.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
